This half term's value -

Our School Vision: 'In God's love, aspire and achieve to be the best.' - Corinthians 16:14

Monday 26th February 2024

A huge well done to the children involved in leading Friday's worship linked to Thinking Day. It was wonderful for our children who attend Brownies, Guides, Beavers, Rainbows, Cubs and Scouts to share the things that they enjoy and to share their reflections about Thinking Day. Also a thank you to Mrs Johnson and any other adults involved in supporting the children to prepare for this at their respective clubs too!

As we look forward to next week, we can't wait for our World Book Day celebrations on Thursday 7th March, where children are invited to dress as a favourite book character—alternatively children are invited to wear their pyjamas and bring a teddy, or to wear non-uniform for the day. Children are also invited to bring in their favourite book to share as part of the day too. If you will be joining us for our morning reading session, there will be a PING survey sent out on Tuesday 27th February to collect details of the person attending; we ask that only one person attends per family between 9-9.30am and that you ensure the survey is completed in advance of the morning—thank you.

You will also notice our Easter Bonnet Parade later this term, children will be set a DT project to create their own Easter Bonnet for the parade—this can be as complex or as simple as you would like to make it, so we are giving lots of advance warning in case you want to start sooner!

The collation service for Rev. Martin Cox will be taking place on Wednesday evening at Newchurch Parish Church, Culcheth, at 7pm—all welcome if you would like to attend with the congregations of each parish.

Prayer for the Week

Heavenly Father,

Give me the strength and clarity of mind to find my purpose and walk the path you've laid out for me. I trust your Love God, and know that you will heal this stress. Just as the sun rises each day against the dark of night. Please bring me clarity with the light of God. Amen.
