Prayer for the Week...

Lord, I know how much you love me. It's hard for me to feel it sometimes, but I know your love is always with me. Help me to use your love as a way to persevere in my Lenten intentions. I am weak, but I know with your help, I can use these small sacrifices in my life to draw closer to you. Amen.

It has been another busy week at Winwick, and we have enjoyed welcoming back the warmer weather and sunny skies, which we are all very thankful for!

As we enter the month of March, we also begin our journey through Lent. We have discussed the meaning of Lent in our collective worships and classrooms as we consider changes we wish to make to our lives to prepare for Easter. Over the coming weeks, we will be reflecting on the Lenten journey and the significance of this for the Christian calendar.

This week, we celebrated World Book Day on Thursday, an event which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. We welcomed parents and grown -ups into school to see the fantastic story boxes before drop off. Well done to each and every child who submitted a box, all of them were very creative and showcased a clear love of reading. Thank you to the grown-ups who supported these projects and a well done to you too. During the day, classes partnered up to tour the hall to look at the Story Boxes, before joining their younger buddy for a shared reading session back in classrooms. It was brilliant to see children so passionate to share their favourite books from home too. There were many wonderful costumes were on display everywhere around school, thank you all for your efforts from home to bring your children's most beloved characters to life; the child also enjoyed seeing some of our staff costumes too!

Please see our school Facebook page for all of the wonderful Story Boxes. More photographs will follow next week.

Have a restful weekend, Mrs Duckett and the Winwick Team

As a church school, our church at St Oswald's is really important to us. Our children love being able to visit the church to attend services and different events throughout the school year and it is important that we support them as part of our wider community.

Each week, we will share information from St Oswald's with you on our newsletter and we will also be sharing different key dates with you about the events in our local community that are supporting our church.
