Rainbows for Hope and Celebration Activities

Easter Sunday is the most important festival for Christians, because it celebrates Jesus making all God's promises come true. Rainbows have been a symbol of Hope and God's promises since the end of the story of Noah's Ark. Here are some activities you can try at home to celebrate with rainbows.

Make a rainbow to stick in your window or on a lamppost to cheer people up.

Use toys, magnetic letter or other objects to make a rainbow.

Try a rainbow-themed science project!

Or rainbow pitta bread pizzas.

Make beautiful rainbow words.

Dance Activities Easter Sunday is a big celebration for Christians. Lots of people like to use music and dance to celebrate, so here are some ideas for you to try.
If you've got ribbons at home, you could make dance ribbons to use when you dance.
